NEW NABA CAMPUS IN LONDON

NABA, Nuova Accademia di Belle Arti is an international multi-awarded Academy of Arts and Design. Founded in 1980, with its two campuses in Milan and Rome, it is the largest Academy of Fine Arts in Italy. Starting from A.Y. 2026/27, NABA will land in London, one of the world's most vibrant creative hubs.

The 2,000 sqm Campus will rise in Stratford and inserted in Here East, a leading innovation, technology, and cultural district at Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, home to top institutions in the creative fields. In this dynamic setting, NABA will bring Italian design excellence and foster future talent.
The initial academic offering will include Bachelors of Arts (Hons) and a Foundation Course – all taught in English and releasing a qualification valid in the UK and at the international level – marked by a strong practical and multidisciplinary approach focused on digital technologies and sustainability. Students will benefit from a high-quality academic experience, services and labs and creative spaces, such as Design, Fashion Design, Textile & Knitwear Labs, equipped for hands-on collaboration with the industry.

The new NABA Campus in London won't just be a place to study: it will be a new way of living the future!

LONDON CAMPUS ACADEMIC OFFER
A.Y. 2026/27

BA (HONS) Design

This BA combines theory and practice to develop sensitivity to objects and spaces, guiding students in applying contemporary design forms, critical thinking, technical skills, and methodologies in their own projects.

BA (HONS) Fashion Design

With a hands-on approach, this BA equips students with the language and methodological skills to interpret the complexities of the global fashion system and pursue creative and entrepreneurial careers in the industry.

BA (HONS) Fashion Marketing Management

This BA prepares future professionals to navigate the fashion system by connecting product development with marketing, communication, and distribution, while providing solid skills in culture, design and supply chain management.

Foundation Course

An interdisciplinary preparatory programme designed to equip students with the linguistic, historical, and cultural competences necessary to proceed to the admission entry tests and subsequently enrol onto a BA (Hons) Degree course.

Note: participants who successfully complete the Bachelors of Arts will receive a BA (Hons) Degree awarded by Regent's University London and a total of 360 UK credits (equivalent to 180 ECTS/CFA credits).
Please refer to www.naba.it for further details on our academic offer.
