COURSE TEACHER

Riccardo Russo

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The documentary films industry is an audiovisual production that in recent years has experienced a boom of investments, distribution, and creativity. Even if the boundaries of this type of production are very blurred, the absence of fictionality, the possibility of generating narratives at reduced costs, and the linkage with reality, are its three, main powerful features. Rome, with its timeless history and the greatness of its civilizations, is the ideal place to explore the realm of documentary films. The course is structured into three parts: introduction to documentary films; pre-production of a personal or team project; production of a short film. The course is recommended for students wishing to explore audiovisual production, and to find a real and fruitful expressive possibility in the film documentary industry.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Students will familiarize with the tools of documentary films, offering their own personal gaze on the city of Rome.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

This course is intended for students without any academic background in the specific subject area and for students attending their first year of university studies in Art and Design.

OUTPUT

The output of the course is an original short length documentary production, either made by a team of students or a single student, according to type of project.

LIST OF MATERIALS AND TOOLS

Notes, cameras and accessories, editing workstation.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Class attendance is required for successful completion of the course. Attendance will be taken every class period. Students should attend every lesson, and try to be in class at least 10 minutes before the beginning of class. On the last day of classes, instructors will issue a Certificate of successful attendance only to all students who completed at least 80% of the course.

COURSE POLICY

The Faculty of NABA takes Academic integrity seriously. Instances of academic dishonesty such as plagiarism won't be tolerated.

Mobile phones will be kept switched off all the time during class. Use of laptop during classes for personal purposes is forbidden.

TEACHING METHODS

The course is based on a practical laboratory experience. In an environment of continuous confrontation within the group, led by the teacher, students will interact with the reality of the city of Rome. They will face the essential steps of writing, filming and editing in order to create an original documentary short film. Teamwork will be essential to enrich everyone's path of creation.

TEACHER'S SHORT BIO

Riccardo Russo is a documentary filmmaker with specific interest in socio-environmental topics. Co-founder of Esplorare la Metropoli association of filmmakers and visual researchers, his production focuses on urban and rural storytelling. He has carried out research and has shot documentaries in the five continents in the last 15 years. Between others, he has shot the award-winning documentaries THE WELL (2011) and THE REMNANTS (2017). He also teaches Visual Geography at La Sapienza University (Rome).
