School: Nuova Accademia di Belle Arti Milano (NABA)

Address: Via Darwin 20, 20143 Milan, Italy

Phone: + 39.02.973.192 E-mail: summer@naba.it

Course Structure: 45 hours – 9 lesson days

ECTS: 3 ECTS credits*

Intermediate level

*ECTS credits only awarded to university students or participants who are completing or have completed a university or academic study path

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Students will have the chance to analyse contemporary interior spaces through observation based on individual research. They will develop a professional designer's attitude, searching for materials as a source of inspiration by exploring the city. The project-based work will be geared toward the creation of a model of interior layout, preferably using only regenerated or discarded materials.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Analyzing contemporary interior spaces through observation based on personal research; in this phase the ability to discover the design-value in the city of Milan - thereby showing a personal sensibility to hunt the wealth of public and private space – will play a relevant role.
- Developing an attitude similar to that of professional designers, acting and searching for materials as a source for inspiration through the city exploration, taking personal notes and drawings, pictures, writing text ideas and so on.
- Based on personal research and course guidelines, developing a project with a physical model of interior layout, using different materials and techniques with the aim of stressing the ability to interpret and represent spaces and environments in a quick, easy and very effective way, to support concept generation and project proportion
- Final results will be presented in a final class exhibition, with the support of a booklet, a digital slide show and an architectural model.
