COURSE TEACHER

Caterina Iaquina

COURSE DESCRIPTION

In this full-immersion journey, students will discover why Rome is known as the “Eterna City” as they will explore this timeless city while growing their knowledge of classical, modern but also contemporary arts. The course alternates lectures and visits to Rome’s most iconic monuments, museums, and exhibitions in order to show how to catch the different way to understand the artistic life of the city. The aim of the course is to guide the students along this long stretch of time using a set of carefully selected places and works of art, which will help students to understand the numerous and most significant changes and developments in the world of Italian art.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. Improve personal tools based on site visits and supported by a critical and cultural methodology.
2. Develop personal projects based on creative or critical attitudes (photographic and drawing works, written reports and essays).
3. Invite experimenting professional research methodologies.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Knowledge of the English language

Students will have to be motivated and curious, ready to work individually and in groups.

Active participation is welcome and requested.

OUTPUT

Upon successful completion of this course students will be able to:

- 1 . Read and understand the complexity of the “Milan system”.

2. Translate the personal experience of the course into written, photographic or visual forms.
3. Understand the importance to have and use a methodology based on real knowledge of art.

LIST OF MATERIALS AND TOOLS

Laptop
USB Key
Digital Photo Camera

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Class attendance is required for successful completion of the course. Attendance will be taken every class period. Students should attend every lesson, and try to be in class at least 10 minutes before the beginning of class. On the last day of classes, instructors will issue a Certificate of successful attendance only to all students who completed at least 80% of the course.

COURSE POLICY

The Faculty of NABA takes Academic integrity seriously. Instances of academic dishonesty such as plagiarism won't be tolerated.

Mobile phones will be kept switched off all the time during class. Use of laptop during classes for personal purposes is forbidden.

TEACHING METHODS

By introducing a mix of frontal lectures, field trips, group discussion, workshops and practical work students will be encouraged to work and will be fully assisted in order to develop their ideas, and their final project. Throughout the lessons students will be kept focused toward their goal, which is the final presentation, and excited by what they are doing.

Learning by doing: a mix of theoretical lessons, field trips and practical workshops.
