TITLE – AREA

Sketching around Rome (experience level)

COURSE TEACHER

Montorfano Alberto

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Students will develop their drawing skills while exploring the ancient city of Rome, its monuments, museums, and the everyday places where Roman people gather to enjoy life. As they make quick drawing and painting sketches outdoor and indoor different environments, they will practice how to capture tone, colour, light, and atmosphere by using a variety of drawing and painting techniques.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The course aims to provide and strengthen a horizon to the practice of drawing as a cognitive and not just illustrative attitude.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Basical drawing and painting skills

OUTPUT

At the end of the course, each student will have produced a personal folder that will collect all the personal and guided studies, given by the study on the relationship between the human being, the historical-social environment and the urban one, using the city of Rome as an object of study in itself and as a catalyst of complexity and paradigms.

LIST OF MATERIALS AND TOOLS

Hardcover Sketchbook A3 120/200 gr/m2, soft pencils, color pencils, ballpoint and gel pens, charcoal, soft pastels, cutter or pencil sharpener, soft oil pastels, eraser, kneaded eraser, black India ink, watercolors (min. pack of 12 godets), 3 different sizes round watercolor brushes, container for water
